WEBSITE TERMS OF USE

apricotrobotics.com

1. Purpose and Scope

These Website Terms of Use (“Website Terms”) govern your access to and use of the website operated by Botpath Private Limited at apricotrobotics.com and any related webpages, online forms, downloadable materials, website content, and online resources made available through the website.

These Website Terms apply to all website visitors, prospective customers, business contacts, vendors, partners, service providers, and any person accessing or using the website.

These Website Terms apply only to website access and online interactions. They do not replace Botpath’s Product Terms & Conditions, Privacy Policy, service agreements, quotations, invoices, purchase orders, warranty documents, safety documentation, user manuals, or any other written agreement issued or accepted by Botpath.

If you purchase, lease, deploy, operate, or use Botpath’s commercial cleaning robots or related services, separate product and service terms may apply.

2. About Botpath

Botpath Private Limited provides professional cleaning robot products and related software services for industrial facilities, commercial buildings, warehouses, campuses, and large managed environments.

The website is intended to provide general information about Botpath, its products, services, business focus, company updates, contact channels, and related resources.

3. Company Details

Company Name: Botpath Private Limited

Registered Office: K No-200, MUDUGURKI, Bangalore, Karnataka, India – 562110

Website: apricotrobotics.com

Contact Email: relations@apricotrobotics.com

4. Acceptance of Website Terms

By accessing or using the website, you agree to comply with these Website Terms.

If you do not agree with these Website Terms, you should not use the website.

You are responsible for ensuring that your access to the website is lawful in your location and under any rules applicable to you or your organization.

5. Website Use

You may use the website only for lawful and legitimate purposes, including:

1. Learning about Botpath and its business.
2. Viewing information about Botpath's products and services.
3. Submitting business enquiries.
4. Requesting product or service information.
5. Contacting Botpath for permitted business purposes.
6. Accessing resources made available by Botpath.

You must not use the website in any unlawful, harmful, misleading, abusive, or unauthorized manner.

6. Informational Purpose Only

The information on the website is provided for general business and informational purposes.

Website content does not, by itself, create a binding offer, product commitment, warranty, guarantee, service obligation, or contractual relationship between you and Botpath.

Product availability, pricing, specifications, deployment scope, warranty coverage, service commitments, and commercial terms will be governed only by the applicable quotation, invoice, purchase order, signed agreement, service document, or written confirmation issued or accepted by Botpath.

Botpath may update, correct, remove, or change website content from time to time without prior notice.

7. Product and Service Information on Website

The website may describe Botpath's commercial cleaning robots, software, dashboards, support services, deployment services, and related offerings.

Such information is provided for general understanding and may not include complete product, safety, technical, commercial, legal, warranty, or operational details.

Before purchasing, leasing, deploying, or operating any Botpath product or service, you should refer to the applicable product documentation, safety instructions, commercial agreement, and written terms issued or accepted by Botpath.

8. Enquiry Forms and Communications

If you submit information through the website, email, contact form, demo request, enquiry form, or any other online communication channel, you agree that:

1. The information you provide will be accurate and lawful.
2. You will not submit false, misleading, harmful, confidential, or unauthorized information.
3. You have the right to provide the information submitted by you.
4. Botpath may use the submitted information to respond to your enquiry, evaluate your request, contact you, provide information, or take related business action.

Submitting an enquiry does not require Botpath to respond, accept an order, provide a quotation, offer a product, or enter into a business relationship.

9. User-Submitted Content

If you submit comments, feedback, suggestions, enquiries, documents, files, images, business information, or other content through the website or related communication channels, you remain responsible for such content.

You must not submit content that:

1. Is unlawful, false, misleading, defamatory, abusive, obscene, offensive, or harmful.
2. Violates any third-party rights.
3. Contains confidential information that you are not authorized to share.
4. Contains malware, harmful code, or malicious instructions.
5. Violates privacy, intellectual property, data protection, or other applicable laws.
6. Is unrelated to legitimate business communication with Botpath.

Botpath may review, remove, reject, or ignore user-submitted content where it believes such action is appropriate.

10. Prohibited Website Use

You must not:

1. Access or use the website for any unlawful purpose.
2. Attempt unauthorized access to the website, servers, systems, accounts, or data.
3. Interfere with the security, availability, or operation of the website.
4. Introduce viruses, malware, bots, scripts, crawlers, or harmful code.
5. Scrape, copy, harvest, or extract website content or data without permission.
6. Misrepresent your identity, organization, authority, or purpose.
7. Use the website to send spam, phishing messages, fraudulent enquiries, or malicious communication.
8. Upload or submit content that violates law, privacy, confidentiality, or intellectual property rights.
9. Use the website in a way that may damage Botpath's reputation, systems, business, users, partners, or customers.
10. Attempt to reverse engineer, test, scan, overload, or attack the website or related systems without written permission.

Botpath may restrict, block, suspend, investigate, or take legal action against any unauthorized or prohibited use.

11. Intellectual Property Rights

All rights, title, and interest in the website and its content belong to Botpath Private Limited or its licensors.

This includes website text, product descriptions, graphics, images, videos, logos, trademarks, designs, layouts, icons, downloads, documents, business material, software elements, and other website content.

You may view website content for legitimate informational purposes only.

You must not copy, reproduce, modify, publish, distribute, sell, lease, sublicense, display, scrape, mirror, frame, or commercially exploit any website content without Botpath's prior written permission.

No ownership rights are transferred to you by accessing or using the website.

12. Trademarks and Branding

Botpath's name, logos, marks, product names, service names, designs, and branding are owned by Botpath Private Limited or its licensors.

You must not use Botpath's name, logo, trademark, service mark, product image, or branding without prior written permission from Botpath.

Any unauthorized use may result in legal action.

13. Downloads and Website Materials

Botpath may make brochures, presentations, catalogues, technical summaries, documents, product sheets, images, videos, or other materials available for download or viewing.

Such materials are provided only for permitted informational or business evaluation purposes.

You must not misuse, alter, remove notices from, republish, resell, or commercially exploit such materials without Botpath's written permission.

Botpath may update, withdraw, or restrict access to downloadable materials at any time.

14. Third-Party Links

The website may contain links to third-party websites, platforms, tools, videos, documents, or services.

Third-party links are provided for convenience only. Botpath does not control third-party websites or services.

Botpath is not responsible for third-party content, privacy practices, security practices, availability, accuracy, or terms.

You should review the applicable third-party terms and privacy policies before using third-party websites or services.

15. Privacy and Cookies

Your use of the website may involve collection or processing of personal data, contact details, website usage information, cookies, or similar information.

Such handling of information will be governed by Botpath's Privacy Policy and any applicable cookie notice or cookie preference mechanism.

For privacy-related questions, contact Botpath at relations@apricotrobotics.com.

16. Website Availability

Botpath may modify, suspend, restrict, or discontinue the website, any webpage, online form, content, feature, download, or online resource at any time.

Botpath does not guarantee that the website will always be available, uninterrupted, secure, error-free, virus-free, or compatible with every device, browser, network, or location.

You are responsible for using suitable devices, internet access, security tools, and browser settings to access the website.

17. No Professional Advice

Website content is provided for general information only.

Nothing on the website should be treated as legal, technical, safety, financial, operational, procurement, engineering, or professional advice specific to your facility, use case, or business requirement.

You should obtain appropriate professional, technical, safety, legal, or operational advice before making decisions based on website content.

18. Disclaimer

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the website and website content are provided on an "as is" and "as available" basis.

Botpath does not guarantee that website content will always be complete, accurate, current, uninterrupted, secure, or error-free.

Botpath may correct, update, modify, or remove website content at any time.

Product or service information available on the website is subject to change and should be confirmed through Botpath's official written communication before purchase, lease, deployment, or use.

19. Limitation of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, Botpath Private Limited, its directors, employees, affiliates, contractors, partners, suppliers, and licensors will not be liable for any indirect, incidental, special, punitive, exemplary, or consequential damages arising from or related to website access, website use, inability to access the website, website content, third-party links, downloads, online enquiries, or website-related communications.

This includes loss of profit, business opportunity, data, goodwill, reputation, productivity, anticipated savings, or business interruption.

Nothing in these Website Terms excludes liability that cannot legally be excluded.

20. Indemnity

You agree to indemnify and hold harmless Botpath Private Limited, its directors, employees, affiliates, contractors, partners, suppliers, and licensors from claims, losses, damages, liabilities, costs, and expenses arising from:

1. Your misuse of the website.
2. Your violation of these Website Terms.
3. Your violation of applicable laws.
4. Your submission of false, misleading, unlawful, or unauthorized content.
5. Your infringement of third-party rights.
6. Unauthorized access, scraping, interference, misuse, or disruption caused by you or through your systems.

21. Suspension, Restriction, and Removal

Botpath may restrict or block access to the website or remove content where it believes that:

1. These Website Terms have been violated.
2. Website security or availability is at risk.
3. Unlawful, harmful, false, or unauthorized activity has occurred.
4. Botpath is required to act by law, regulator, court, or government authority.
5. The website, Botpath, customers, partners, or users may be harmed.

Botpath may also cooperate with legal, regulatory, or enforcement authorities where required by law.

22. Changes to Website Terms

Botpath may update these Website Terms from time to time.

Where material changes are made, Botpath may provide notice through the website or other reasonable means.

Continued use of the website after updated Website Terms become effective means you accept the updated Website Terms.

23. Governing Law

These Website Terms will be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of India.

24. Dispute Resolution

Any dispute arising out of or relating to these Website Terms, the website, website content, or website use will first be attempted to be resolved through good-faith discussions between the parties.

If the dispute is not resolved within 30 days, it may be referred to arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

Seat and venue of arbitration: Bangalore, Karnataka, India

Language: English

Subject to arbitration, the courts located at Bangalore, Karnataka, India will have exclusive jurisdiction.

25. Severability

If any provision of these Website Terms is found to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, the remaining provisions will continue to remain in effect to the maximum extent permitted by law.

26. No Waiver

Failure by Botpath to enforce any provision of these Website Terms does not mean Botpath has waived its right to enforce that provision or any other provision later.
